Code of Conduct

1. The applicant would be deemed to have accepted and agreed to be bound by the terms of this code of conduct and any other terms and conditions as detailed in the prospectus, application form, rules and regulations, by either signing the same.
2. IBSAMS reserves to itself the right to change, amend, add-to, delete any requirement for support services and syllabi of the course, as it may deem fit.
3. The Institute will not be liable for any loss/damage due to closure or disruption caused by any industrial action, Governmental action, fire, flood, act of God, force majeure or for any other reason not in the control of the Institute.
4. No fees, including registration and Course fee will be refunded for any reason whatsoever.
5. Non-payment of fees will lead to the names being struck off the rolls of the Institute, besides the student being debarred from giving the examinations.
6. You may unregister from an IBSAMS course at anytime. There are absolutely no academic penalties associated with incomplete IBSAMS studies
7. In case the student then wishes to continue with the course he/she will be treated as a re-entry case. A re-entry case will pay Rs.1000/- as penalty/fresh processing charges.
8. An Applicant has to give his/her online examination within 9 months after their successful completion of selected course duration. Beyond that time limit he/she will automatically be counted unregistered. If one wishes to continue thereafter will have to pay 50% fees again to re-appear for examinations.
9. In case a cheque is dishonored, the student will be liable to pay Rs.500/- as processing charges.
10. The Institute will not be responsible in any way whatsoever for the performance of the student in any examination/ interview / job etc. The Institute is also not responsible in any way for ensuring job/placement of any nature, this will depend on the performance of the candidate.
11. I understand that the Qualifications being offered by the Institute are not recognized by AICTE/ AIU/ Govt. of India / DEC and this has been explained to me.
